41. After paragraph 51 of Schedule 3, insert—

“Commutation: small pensions

52. An application by a transition member under regulation 159 for a commutation under regulation 168 also has effect as an application for any commutation due to P under regulation J9 of the 2005 Regulations.”.

New Schedule 4

42. After Schedule 3, insert—

“SCHEDULE 4

Regulation 214A

Scheme valuation and employer cost cap

Scheme valuation report

1. The scheme manager must commission the scheme actuary to carry out a valuation of this scheme (“scheme valuation”) and any connected scheme, and to prepare a scheme valuation report, in accordance with, and by reference to the effective dates defined and set out in, HM Treasury directions under section 11 of the Act (referred to in this Schedule as “Treasury directions”).

Employer cost cap

2. The employer cost cap for this scheme is [Add rate here] of the pensionable earnings of members of this scheme.

Breach of employer cost cap margins

3. If the scheme actuary reports in a valuation report that the cost cap cost of the scheme, calculated following a valuation in accordance with Treasury directions, has gone beyond the margins specified in HM Treasury directions under section 12 of the Act, paragraph 4 applies.

Scottish Teachers’ Pension Scheme Advisory Board report

4. Where this paragraph applies, the responsible authority must request the Scottish Teachers’ Pension Scheme Advisory Board constituted under Part 2 of these Regulations to report within six months of the request—

- (a) whether there is agreement between the employer representatives and the member representatives on a recommended procedure for aligning the cost cap cost of the scheme with the employer cost cap; and
- (b) if there is such agreement, the procedure which the board is in agreement to recommend.

Action by the responsible authority

5. On receipt of the Scottish Teachers' Pension Scheme Advisory Board's report, the responsible authority, in consultation with the scheme actuary and with such persons as the responsible authority considers appropriate, must—

- (a) review any recommendation put forward in that report; and
- (b) either—
 - (i) if agreement has been reached, and the responsible authority accepts the proposed procedure, implement the procedure agreed between the members of the Scottish Teachers' Pension Scheme Advisory Board; or
 - (ii) if the responsible authority does not agree with any agreement reached, or if agreement has not been reached, make such change to the standard accrual rate as in the opinion of the scheme actuary is necessary to bring the cost cap cost of the scheme into line with the employer cost cap.

Timescale for action

6. Any changes to the scheme made as a result of paragraph 5 are to take effect within four years of the effective date as at which the cost cap of the scheme was evaluated in the scheme actuary's valuation report.”.
