(a) for paragraph (1) substitute—
“(1) Subject to paragraph (2A), if a person—
(a) ceases to be a Scheme employer (including ceasing to be an admission body participating in the Scheme); or
(b) is or was a Scheme employer, but irrespective of whether that employer employs active members contributing to one or more other funds, no longer has an active member contributing towards a fund (“a relevant fund”) which has liabilities in respect of benefits in respect of current and former employees of that employer, that person becomes “an exiting employer” in relation to the relevant fund for the purposes of this regulation and is liable to pay an exit payment.”; and
(b) after paragraph (2) insert—
“(2A) An administering authority may by written notice (“a suspension notice”) to an exiting employer suspend that employer’s liability to pay an exit payment for a period of up to 3 years starting from the date when that employer would otherwise become an exiting employer, if the condition in paragraph (2B) is met.

(2B) The condition mentioned in paragraph (2A) is that in the reasonable opinion of the administering authority the employer is likely to have one or more active members contributing to the fund within the period specified in the suspension notice.

(2C) If an administering authority serves a suspension notice on an employer, unless that suspension notice is withdrawn, paragraph (2) does not apply in respect of that employer, but the employer must continue to make such contributions towards the liabilities of the fund in respect of benefits in respect of the employer’s current and former employees as the administering authority reasonably requires.”.

not councillor membership with former membership which is not councillor membership.”;
(d) omit paragraph 8; and
(e) for paragraph 9(a) substitute—
   “(a) for paragraph (1) substitute—
   “(1) Where a councillor member ceases to be a member of the member’s local authority on the grounds of ill-health or infirmity of mind or body before reaching normal pension age, the member is entitled to and must take early payment of a retirement pension if that member satisfies the condition in paragraph (3) of this regulation.”; and”.

PART 3
Amendment of the Transitional Regulations

Amendment of the Transitional Regulations

33. The Transitional Regulations are amended in accordance with regulations 34 to 38.

Amendment of regulation 3

34. In regulation 3, after “preserved” insert “with the exception that a member who ceased active membership before 1 December 2006 and who aggregates that earlier membership, not having a continuous break in active membership of public service pension schemes of more than 5 years, shall have a normal pension age of 65 in relation to that earlier membership”.

Amendment of regulation 10

35. In regulation 10 after paragraph (10), insert—
   “(11) In the case of a deferred member who has been a councillor member, the member may only aggregate councillor membership with former councillor membership and, as the case may be, membership which is not councillor membership with former membership which is not councillor membership.”.

Amendment of regulation 17

36. In regulation 17—
   (a) in paragraph (2) for “paragraphs (9) to (13)” substitute “paragraphs (9) to (15)”; and after “member’s” insert “total”;
   (b) in paragraph (4) for “paragraphs (9) to (13)” substitute “paragraphs (9) to (15)”; and
   (c) after paragraph (13), insert —
   “(14) Where—
      (a) a deceased Scheme member was a woman by virtue of a full gender recognition certificate having been issued under the Gender Recognition Act 2004(a); and
      (b) at the time of the member’s death, she was married to a woman and that marriage subsisted before the time when the certificate was issued; and
      (c) the marriage took place after the member’s active membership ceased, the Scheme member’s female survivor is to be treated for the purpose of these Regulations as if the certificate had not been issued.

(a) 2004 c.7
(15) Where—
(a) a deceased Scheme member was a man by virtue of a full gender recognition certificate having been issued under the Gender Recognition Act 2004; and
(b) at the time of the member’s death, he was married to a man and that marriage subsisted before the time when the certificate was issued; and
(c) the marriage took place after the member’s active membership ceased, the Scheme member’s male survivor is to be treated for the purpose of these Regulations as if the certificate had not been issued.

Insertion of new regulation 25A

37. After regulation 25 insert—

“Employer contributions for historic liabilities

25A.—(1) This regulation applies to an employer who—
(a) is or was a Scheme employer or admission body in the 2015 Scheme or its equivalent under any of the Earlier Schemes;
(b) has outstanding liabilities to a fund (“the relevant fund”) in relation to any person entitled to benefits under the 2015 Scheme or any of the Earlier Schemes;
(c) irrespective of whether that employer employs active members contributing to one or more other funds, does not employ any active members contributing to the relevant fund;
(d) has not paid into the relevant fund an exit payment under regulation 62 of the 2014 Regulations (special circumstances where revised actuarial valuations and certificates must be obtained) or an equivalent payment under any of the Earlier Regulations.

(2) Where this regulation applies, an administering authority may require the employer to pay such contributions as an actuary certifies must be paid to meet the outstanding liabilities to the relevant fund.

(3) Payments under paragraph (2) must be paid over such period of time as the administering authority considers reasonable.

(4) When an employer has paid the contributions referred to in paragraph (2), no further payments are due from that employer in respect of those liabilities to the relevant fund relating to the benefits in respect of any current or former employees of that employer.”.

Amendment of regulation 26

38. In regulation 26(1) for “Certificate of Protection” substitute “certificate of protection”.

41. After regulation 41, insert—

“Marriage of a same sex couple

41A.—(1) Subject to regulation 41C, in this Scheme—
   (a) a reference to civil partnership is to be read as including a reference to marriage of a same sex couple;
   (b) a reference to civil partners is to be read as including a reference to a married same sex couple; and
   (c) a reference to a person who is in a civil partnership is to be read as including a reference to a person who is married to a person of the same sex.

(2) Where paragraph (1) requires a reference to be read in a particular way, any related reference (such as a reference to a civil partnership that has ended, or a reference to a person whose civil partnership has ended) is to be read accordingly.

(3) For the purposes of paragraphs (1) and (2), it does not matter how a reference is expressed.

Living together as a same sex couple

41B.—(1) In this Scheme—
   (a) a reference to persons who are not in a civil partnership but are living together as civil partners is to be read as including a reference to a same sex couple who are not married but are living together as a married couple; and
   (b) a reference to a person who is living with another person as if they were in a civil partnership is to be read as including a reference to a person who is living with another person of the same sex as if they were married.

(2) Where paragraph (1) requires a reference to be read in a particular way, any related reference (such as a reference to persons formerly living together as civil partners) is to be read accordingly.

(3) For the purposes of paragraphs (1) and (2), it does not matter how a reference is expressed.

Continuation of marriage where Scheme member acquires new legal gender

41C.—(1) Where—
   (a) a deceased Scheme member was a woman by virtue of a full gender recognition certificate having been issued under the Gender Recognition Act 2004(a); and
   (b) at the time of the member’s death, she was married to a woman and that marriage subsisted before the time when the certificate was issued,

the Scheme member’s widow is to be treated for the purpose of these Regulations as if the certificate had not been issued.

(2) Where—
   (a) a deceased Scheme member was a man by virtue of a full gender recognition certificate having been issued under the Gender Recognition Act 2004; and
   (b) at the time of the member’s death, he was married to a man and that marriage subsisted before the time when the certificate was issued,
the Scheme member’s widower is to be treated for the purpose of these Regulations as if the certificate had not been issued.”.

Amendment of regulation 96

42. In regulation 96(9) for “Scheme employer” substitute “administering authority”.

PART 5

Amendment of the 2008 Regulations

43. The 2008 Regulations are amended in accordance with regulation 44.

Insertion of new regulations in 2008 Regulations

44. After regulation 24, insert—

“Marriage of a same sex couple

24A.—(1) Subject to regulation 24C, in this Scheme—
(a) a reference to civil partnership is to be read as including a reference to marriage of a same sex couple;
(b) a reference to civil partners is to be read as including a reference to a married same sex couple; and
(c) a reference to a person who is in a civil partnership is to be read as including a reference to a person who is married to a person of the same sex.

(2) Where paragraph (1) requires a reference to be read in a particular way, any related reference (such as a reference to a civil partnership that has ended, or a reference to a person whose civil partnership has ended) is to be read accordingly.

(3) For the purposes of paragraphs (1) and (2), it does not matter how a reference is expressed.

Living together as a same sex couple

24B.—(1) In this Scheme—
(a) a reference to persons who are not in a civil partnership but are living together as civil partners is to be read as including a reference to a same sex couple who are not married but are living together as a married couple; and
(b) a reference to a person who is living with another person as if they were in a civil partnership is to be read as including a reference to a person who is living with another person of the same sex as if they were married.

(2) Where paragraph (1) requires a reference to be read in a particular way, any related reference (such as a reference to persons formerly living together as civil partners) is to be read accordingly.

(3) For the purposes of paragraphs (1) and (2), it does not matter how a reference is expressed.

Continuation of marriage where Scheme member acquires new legal gender

24C.—(1) Where—
(a) a deceased Scheme member was a woman by virtue of a full gender recognition certificate having been issued under the Gender Recognition Act 2004(a); and
(b) at the time of the member’s death, she was married to a woman and that marriage subsisted before the time when the certificate was issued,
the Scheme member’s widow is to be treated for the purpose of these Regulations as if the certificate had not been issued.

(2) Where—
(a) a deceased Scheme member was a man by virtue of a full gender recognition certificate having been issued under the Gender Recognition Act 2004; and
(b) at the time of the member’s death, he was married to a man and that marriage subsisted before the time when the certificate was issued,
the Scheme member’s widower is to be treated for the purpose of these Regulations as if the certificate had not been issued.”.

EXPLANATORY NOTE
(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations make miscellaneous amendments to the main regulations which constitute the Local Government Pension Scheme in Scotland, namely the Local Government Pension Scheme (Scotland) Regulations 2014 and to the transitional and savings provisions in relation to that scheme contained in the Local Government Pension Scheme (Transitional Provisions and Savings) (Scotland) Regulations 2014. They also make amendments to the Local Government Pension Scheme (Scotland) Regulations 1998 and the Local Government Pension Scheme (Benefits, Membership and Contributions) (Scotland) Regulations 2008 to allow for survivor benefits to be payable in relation to survivors of same sex marriages under old schemes which are carried over into the 2015 Scheme.
