

Statutory Framework

1. The pension, injury benefit and premature retirement compensation arrangements for the devolved public service schemes in Scotland are set out in statutory regulations made by the Scottish Ministers, with the consent, as required, of HM Treasury. The devolved schemes cover the NHS, Teachers, Police, Firefighters and Local Government schemes. SPPA is responsible for the legislation for each scheme and administers the NHS, Teachers, Police, and Firefighters schemes. The Local Government scheme is administered by the relevant local authority.
2. Occupational pensions policy is reserved and the UK Government's Public Service Pensions Act 2013 (the 2013 Act) introduced reform schemes from 1 April 2015 which included those schemes executive devolved to Scottish Ministers. The 2013 Act includes provision for the introduction of new Career Average Revalued Earnings (CARE) schemes, new scheme governance arrangements, later retirement ages and protection for those members close to retirement. That protection allows eligible members to either permanently remain in their existing scheme or remain on a tapered basis. Consequently the legislation supporting the existing pre 2015 schemes has to be maintained and amended where necessary by SPPA on behalf of the Scottish Ministers.
3. The enabling powers to make and amend the 2015 schemes are provided by the 2013 Act. The main enabling powers for the existing re 2015 schemes are contained in Sections 7, 9, 10, 12, 16 and 24 of, and Schedule 3 to, the Superannuation Act 1972, Sections 1 to 8 of the Police Pensions Act 1976 (as amended), section 34 and 60 of the Fire and Rescue Services Act 2004 and the preserved Section 26 of the Fire Services Act 1947. The regulations provide for the accrual and payment of pensions, allowances and gratuities to, or in respect of, Scottish teachers, employees of the National Health Service and Local Government in Scotland, and police officers and firefighters in Scotland.
4. There are similar, but separate, schemes for England and Wales contained in regulations made by the relevant Secretaries of State. There are also similar schemes in Northern Ireland.
5. Under the regulations relating to the Teachers and NHS schemes, Scottish Ministers must confirm HM Treasury consent before any regulations changing either the existing or 2015 schemes are made. Similar consent is not required for the Local Government, Police or Firefighters schemes in Scotland.
6. Current regulations for each of the five devolved schemes are set out below. The scheme regulations are also required to conform to legislation governing the operation and tax treatment of occupational pension schemes generally as set out in Pension,

SCOTTISH PUBLIC PENSIONS AGENCY

Finance, Taxation and other relevant Acts and associated subordinate legislation.

7. SPPA also carries out functions in relation to the rules governing, and the administration of, the Legal Aid (Scotland) Pension Scheme 1988 that covers the staff of the Scottish Legal Aid Board. The Board makes the rules governing the scheme, with the approval of the Scottish Ministers under paragraph 8(3) of Schedule 1 to the Legal Aid (Scotland) Act 1986, and the Board is the administering authority. SPPA acts on behalf of the Cabinet Secretary of Justice by agreement with the Scottish Justice Directorate in relation to their approval and appellate functions and for the Board in relation to its administrative function.

8. In making changes to the devolved scheme regulations, Scottish Ministers are required under section 21 of the 2013 Act to consult such persons (or representatives of such persons) as appear likely to be affected. Details of who Scottish Ministers consult with for each of the devolved schemes are held on the SPPA website. This document forms part of the Agency's Framework Document.
